Interfaith Conversation

On Sunday, April 27th, CLC will host a panel discussion on The Lemon Tree, Sandy Tolan's 2006 book about Arab and Jewish relationships (and how two families who called the same house home forged a relationship across religious and cultural lines). The event will be at CLC at 2:00 PM. Refreshments will be served for continued conversation in the Fellowship Hall.

We have secured some copies of the book to offer at the reduced price of $16 (thanks to our friend at Ten Tree Books). See Pastor Christophor if you are interested.

ELCA World Hunger Lenten Appeal

As you have heard mentioned in worship over the last two weeks, we are travelling our Lenten journey with ELCA World Hunger. If you haven't already picked one up, be sure and grab the devotional calendar in the Narthex at church with opportunities for daily reflection. We are also hosting post-worship conversations (11:30 AM - 12:00 PM) around a study resource they have provided, pairing the good work of agencies supported by ELCA World Hunger with the gospel texts for each Sunday.

To support their ministries, we have raised $645 toward our goal of $1,200. We can still use your help to make it. Please consider a gift this Sunday!

Easter Vigil News

With our hearts turned to the possibility of new paths onto which God might be inviting us, the Worship, Music, and Visual Arts Committee has decided that we will not offer an Easter Vigil this year.

Instead, with the acknowledgement that God is calling us into relationship with communities around us, the Committee would like to invite those who are interested to join them at the Easter Vigil offered by St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Natick Center on Saturday, April 19th, at 7 PM. There will be a sign up sheet in the Narthex for folks who would like to attend so that we might carpool (and also provide transportation for those who don't desire to drive at night.
